Responsive Declaration of Aaron Surina

1. I Declare: I am the Respondent and make this declaration in reply to contempt.
2. The petitioners' contempt filing suggesting a parenting plan order violation on October 13, 2017 from a court order dated November 8, 2017:

This is the second time I am in court for contempt regarding the same hospital visit on October 18, 2017

There was no hospital visit on October 13, 2017. The records the petitioner attached as "evidence" does not support the petitioner's assertions.

October 13, 2017: Sirinya the petitioner appeared at my son David's school, during my parenting time while picking him up from school, she grabbed his arm and stated that he "go home with her." David was shaken and crying. There was no hospital visit on this date.

October 18, 2017: My son David came from the petitioner's residence clearly upset, and stated that his Mother hit his brother, my son Andrew, in the face.

(SEE EXHIBIT 1)

I was stunned and not sure what to do, and after calming the children, I immediately called my lawyer for advice. My neighbor Chuck Karshney was outside, and I was frightened, and not sure what to do or how
