PROCEDURAL DECLARATION

Keith A. Glanzer DECLARES:

1. I am the attorney of record for Petitioner in this matter.
2. On April 6, 2018 the court ordered Respondent to submit to a CR35 "to include but not be limited to an AAP 1-2 and any other testing recommended by the examiner.
3. Respondent submitted to a parent child assessment administered by Linda Wirtz, M.A. on May 10, 2018. Her report was issued June 4, 2018.
4. Ms. Wirtz recommended as follows:

"Finally, I am encouraging Mr. Surina to complete a psychological evaluation in response to concerns identified by Judge Patti Walker in District Court on February 1, 2018. The court report said, "I do the domestic violence criminal docket. The way you present is someone who has power and control issues; and that is very concerning to a Court."

A psychological evaluation could negate concerns about anger management issues or personality disorders. It has been my experience if there are areas of concern identified and Mr. Surina is agreeable to complying with all recommendations it generally reflects positively on the client's commitment to become the best parent they can be for their children."
5. Subsequent to Ms. Wirtz's recommendation Mr. Surina has acted out in several different ways, to include but not limited to refusing to cooperate with the sale of the family residence, which caused 3 different buyers to rescind their offers, travel to Thailand, without notice to Petitioner to obtain a foreign divorce and custody decree and continue to threaten Petitioner with false accusations of child abuse.
6. Trying to reach an agreement on a person to conduct the testing is futile and will need the court to order the testing.
7. Ordering this testing complies with the court's previous order.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Signed at Spokane, Washington on January 26, 2018.
