II. FINDINGS

2.1 The court has considered the Motion for Contempt and Restraining Order; A hearing was held on Friday, May 3, 2019.

2.2 Contempt. The September 27, 2017, November 8, 2017, March 15, 2018 and June 27, 2018 were not obeyed.

2.3 Respondent, Aaron Surina, acted in bad faith when he intentionally violated the order by failing to make the auto payment for the last 6 months as order September 27, 2017. He further acted in bad faith when he intentionally failed to make the mortgage payment since September 2018 pursuant to the same order.

2.4 Petitioner has had to borrow money to keep the auto payment current to avoid repossession of the auto. The judgement for these payments entered against Respondent in the amount of $3,270.00 below is reasonable. The judgement for the delinquent mortgage payments in the amount of $ 14,199.21 entered against Respondent below is reasonable.

2.5 Respondent acted in bad faith when he intentionally violated the civil restraining order entered November 8, 2017 which ordered Respondent to communicate with Petitioner in writing only and limit any communication to child related issues only.

2.6 Petitioner has shown good cause to grant her motion to enter a temporary order which clarifies the November 8, 2017 order as follows: There shall be no communication between Respondent and Petitioner unless the

2.7 communication meets the criteria as outline in Family Wizard Respondent shall pay the annual fee for both parties for 1 year. All other communication by Respondent shall be through Petitioners

2.8 Attorney Fees and Costs. Attorney fees and costs in the amount of $1,500.00 and attorney Keith A Glanzer sanctions in the amount of $500.00 ordered below are reasonable.

2.9 Petitioner has shown good cause to grant Petitioner's motion.

3.0 Court's Findings are entered herein by this reference as though fully set forth herein.
