In re:

SIRINYA SURINA,

Petitioner,

Case No. 17-3-01817-0

and

Declaration of Donna Radcliff

AARON SURINA,

Respondent.

I Declare: My name is Donna Radcliff and I have worked closely with Aaron Surina for over three years at Providence Health and Services in my position of Senior Director of Information for Eastern Washington and Montana. I am a retired United States Air Force officer.

I am concerned with Ms. Surinya's level of physical violence. I have seen the video clips. Prior to her Protection Order being filed, Aaron had confided in me about her domestic violence against him and I had given him some advice. He was very embarrassed over what was happening in his personal life.

Aaron Surina is a very intelligent and hard working staff member. Aaron lives and acts in accordance with our core values which include respect, excellence, stewardship and compassion. I would describe him as a "gentle giant," as he is a very tall man, and has excellent communication skills. Aaron often works with frustrated customers and does an incredible job de-escalating the situation and applying his expertise to solve problems. In my three years working with Aaron I have never seen him speak or act in a threatening way. I often heard him speak of his need to get home early to care for his children. He frequently shared pictures of himself and the children playing outdoors, setting up tents, playing in the park.
