SUPERIOR COURT OF WASHINGTON COUNTY OF SPOKANE

Petitioner(s): Srinja Surina

vs.

Respondent(s): Aaron Surina

CASE NO. 17-3-01817-0

ORDER Quash June 7, 2019
(OR) / Immediate Restraining Order
and For CR II Sanctions

I. BASIS

Respondent moved the court for: Immediate ex parte restraining order
Petitioner moved the court to quash the restraining order & CR II Sanctions.

II. FINDING

After reviewing the case record to date, and the basis for the motion, the court finds that:

There is no factual basis for Respondent's motion for ex parte restraining order. The court reviewed the file and did not find / sufficient evidence to support Respondent's motion; Petitioner moved as a result of court ordered house sale, of which Respondent was fully aware.

Findings Continued:

CR11 constituted certification that motions submitted to the court are reasonable and well-grounded in fact, warranted by existing law or good faith argument to extend the law and not interposed for and improper purpose such as to harass or cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

Respondent's signed the motion/declaration in violation of CR11. The court should impose appropriate reasonable expenses incurred including attorney fees.

The June 7, 2019 ex parte emergency was improperly sought and should never been issued.

The attorney fees order below are reasonable. The Court's oral findings are entered by this reference as though fully set forth herein.

Respondent's other motions are held over for the trial judge if he/she chooses to hear them. (unr)

Mr. Surina's motion for temporary orders & motion for contempt is not in court file, so court could not hear those matters. Also, neither party provided bench copies. It appears the clerk's office has misplaced/misfiled the motions.

III. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that:

The Respondent's June 7, 2019 ex parte emergency order is quashed.

The Petitioner is awarded $1500 in attorney fees and 1,000 in sanctions to be entered immediately by separate judgement.

The Court's oral ruling is set forth herein by this reference as though fully set forth herein.
