Motion to Dismiss March 27 appeal due to indigency

I declare:

- 1. I am a (check one): ☒ Petitioner / Plaintiff in this case.

I am filing this motion today to dismiss the appeal to the trial court's orders from the superior court in case 17-3-01817-0 (March 27, 2019 Hearing).

I was able to facilitate a sale of the house by working directly with the closing attorney who approached me in hopes that I would have "a change of mind" about cooperating with selling the house. When he realized that I had been a victim of this other lawyer's game to try to be awarded the proceeds, he went to court with me to obtain international travel restrictions prior to any distribution without a trial of the proceeds from the sale.

Mr. Gustafson assured me that he would not allow any misrepresentations on the title, he assured that he would remove the 28,000 dollars or more that opposing counsel was putting as liens on my property without any agreement or understanding of this attempt to collect an unlawful debt and Mr. Gustafson guaranteed that he would prevent monies to be paid before proceeds go to my trust depository with the attorney until I am able to figure the matters with the trial court as normal SOP.

In the end, I was finally able to thwart the theft of 28,000 dollars cash, misrepresentations on title during a real property transaction, false instruments placed on my real property title at the auditors office clouding title forcing the loss of a buyer and the house sold immediately.

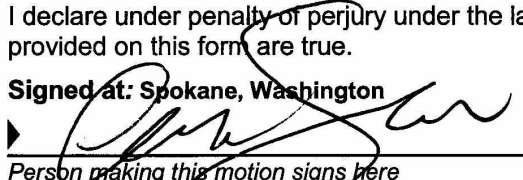

I did pay for the transcripts to be completed for this appeal but I can not afford to entertain this expensive access to justice unfortunately. I already have lost roughly 200,000.00 in a fake divorce case beginning with an unethical filing of a false ex-parte TRO and testifying as a witness to take everything I've ever worked for "in the name of advocating on his client's behalf". His client is indebted to him for the rest of her life most likely including being forced to sign child support checks over as an unemployed adult with two children to pay the interest on the predatory loans his friend supposedly borrowed from the bank.
