➤ The court has made Findings and Conclusions in this case and now Orders:

RCW 26.09.030; .040; .070(3)

Final Divorce/Legal Separation/

Mandatory Form (05/16, rev.4/25/16)

Valid/Invalid Marriage Order

FL Divorce 241

p. 1 of 7

3. Marriage

This marriage is dissolved. The Petitioner and Respondent are divorced.

4. Name Changes

Sirinya Polarj to continue to use the last name Surina

5. Separation Contract

There is no enforceable separation contract.

6. Money Judgment

All moneys are satisfied and all judgements have been granted. QDRO remains as well as restitution of satisfied judgement never awarded to petitioner for 15,000.00 which the state satisfied with the respondent's retirement.

7. Real Property

Neither spouse owns any real property after the takings in this case.

8. Petitioner's Personal Property (possessions, assets or business interests of any kind)

The personal property listed in Exhibit W is given to Petitioner as his/her separate property. This Exhibit is attached and made part of this Order.

9. Respondent's Personal Property (possessions, assets or business interests of any kind)

The personal property listed in Exhibit H is property that was owned before parties met. Respondent has never received his/her separate property. This Exhibit is attached and made part of this Order.

10. Petitioner's Debt

Petitioner should pay all debts s/he has incurred (made) since the date of separation, unless the court makes a different order about a specific debt below.

The Petitioner has no debt.

11. Respondent's Debt

The Respondent must pay all debts s/he has incurred (taken on) since the date of separation, unless the court makes a different order about a specific debt below. (Check one):

The Respondent must pay the debts that are now in his/her name. All items were in his name as he was the responsible party in the family who took care of business.

12. Debt Collection (hold harmless)

13. Spousal Support

(maintenance/alimony)

No spousal support is ordered.

No Spousal support ordered

14. Fees and Costs

Each spouse will pay his/her own fees and costs.

15. Protection Order

No order of protection has been filed.

16. Restraining Order

The court restrains the children from being taken out of the country without placing appropriate bond for retrieval (155,000.00 per child is estimated value of Bond required).

The court has jurisdiction of the children and retains jurisdiction.

The children do not travel out of the country at this time.

This is a 1 year temp order but the restrictions are in place due to the court's concern for the children and previous history of threatening to abduct over the years by the petitioner.

17. Children of the marriage

This court has jurisdiction over the children the spouses have together as explained in the Findings and Conclusions for this case.

This court shares jurisdiction with Thailand over the children who remain thai nationals by birthright and are registered in Thailand and considered for all intents and purposes to be Thai people while there.

18. Parenting Plan

The court provided an oral final parenting plan on 11/27/2019 and signed a similar final Parenting Plan filed separately on 12/20/2019 and which is to be reviewed on or before 12/19/2020 and fix what is not working / jobs / changes that help.

19. Child Support

Respondent requested Thailand not to charge Petitioner any child support as respondent is able and willing to work to support his children and meet the needs of the children. Thailand agreed and child support was waived for petitioner in Final decree dated 10/18/2018.

Court Order –

The court signed the final Child Support Order and Worksheets filed separately on 12/20/2019 which have an intended review at the 1 year mile marker. The respondent has received notice of reduction in workforce but hopes to move roles at this time.

(*See formal objection under 42 USC 1301(d) and request for conference filed June 8, 2019 and noted for hearing on June 10 for early July 2020 to request the court to weigh in on these matters.)
