13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

If the custodian plans to move, s/he must notify every person who has court-ordered time with the children.

Move to a different school district

If the move is to a different school district, the custodian must complete the form Notice of Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

Exceptions:

- If the custodian could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, the custodian must give notice within 5 days after learning the information.
- If the custodian is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 21 days.
- If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.
- A custodian who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

If the custodian wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he must deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

1 Move within the same school district

2 If the move is within the same school district, the custodian still has to let the other
3 parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail
4 with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No
5 specific form is required.

6 Warning! If you do not notify...

7 A custodian who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court.
8 If that happens the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the 9 custodian to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering 10 the custodian to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

11 Right to object

12 A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a 13 different school district and/or to the custodian's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move 14 is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the 15 move but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons
16 under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

17 An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with children and Petition
18 about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File
19 your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the custodian and anyone else who 20 has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal 21 service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return
22 receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice
23 of intent to Move with Children was received.

24 Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the custodian may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the custodian may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the custodian may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the custodian. (However, the custodian may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the custodian believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)

- 1 • the court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the 2 Objection.

3 Parenting Plan after move

4 If the custodian served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection
5 is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- 6 • Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the 7 Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan
8 cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
9 • Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte
10 Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with 11 Children (FL Relocate 706).
