Re: Contempt Hearing Scheduled for Feb
26th 2021

(DCLR)

Declaration of : Sirinya Surina

I object to the shortened time for a hearing on the 26th of February at 1:30 because English is not my first language and I do not have time to retain counsel and translate respondent's meandering 63 page motion and allegations.

I did not receive Respondents motion and notice of hearing until late February 17, 2021. I arrived home late on Feb 17th and found a 63 page document laying on my front porch. No one was home at the time the documents were dropped off by an alleged "server"

I believe that the hearing should be stricken due to improper service.

Secondly this is untimely service in that the hearing is scheduled 9 days from the date that Judge Dixon signed the Notice of Hearing/Go to Court, Spokane Superior Court Rules requires 14 days advanced notice unless shortened time is granted.

Special circumstances exist in that English is my second language and 9 days does not allow the court adequate time to schedule a certified translator.

This is my response to Respondent's short notice motion and alleged in custodial interference. Respondent once again showed up arbitrarily on Dec 17th, 2018 in an attempt to kidnap the boys again like he did on Dec 3rd 2020 at 7:20 pm for a Dad's weekend that respondent Aaron Surina believed he was "owed" from a weekend prior to the Writ of Habeas Corpus hearing on Nov 10th, 2020

I deny that I interfered with the exchange on Dec 18th 2020. Once again respondent misinterpreted how the holiday schedule supersedes normal father's weekends.

See Section 11 "Conflicts in Scheduling" Line 12 on page 5 of 10 of the attached Parenting Plan dated 12/20/2019.

I did not interfere when Respondent picked up the boys on 12/18/2020 at 1:29 pm which was the last day of school and the day that Christmas break began .

Regarding the Jan 28th alleged interference respondent arbitrarily of his own volition arrived early at David's school. The Parenting Plans says "3 pm Thursday pickup" for father's weekend.

Parenting Plan
(PPP/PPT/PP)

☒ Clerk's action required: 1.

Parenting Plan

1. This parenting plan is a Court Order signed by a judge. This is a Final order (PP).

2. Children - This parenting plan is for the following children:

|    | Child's name  | Age |
|----|----------------------|------------|
| 1. | David Michael Surina | 7          |
| 2. | Andrew Alex Surina   | 3          |

3. Reasons for putting limitations on a parent (under RCW 26.09.191)

a. Abandonment, neglect, child abuse, domestic violence, assault, or sex offense.

Neither parent has any of these problems.

b. Other problems that may harm the children's best interests:

A parent has one or more of these problems as follows:

1 Abusive use of conflict - Respondent, Mr. Surina, has repeatedly engaged in abusive use
2 of conflict with the Petitioner and has consistently involved the minor children in the 3 conflicts, which is then contrary to the children's best interest and emotional health.

4 4. Limitations on a parent

5 The court's oral ruling has been reduced to writing. ~~The verbatim transcript of the court's~~
6 ~~oral ruling filed herein is included in the court's order related to this parenting plan.~~

7 The court's verbatim transcript (hereinafter "VT") shall be part of the permanent record
8 and shall be included as the court's order in all future judicial rulings. ~~Conflicts, if any,~~
9 ~~between the verbatim transcript and the written orders including the decree, child support,~~
10 ~~order or parenting plan shall be resolved in favor of the verbatim transcript.~~

11 The following limits or conditions apply to Aaron Surina.

12 Please see the civil restraints/no contact order filed herein by separate order and or as 13 noted in Section 14, paragraph I.

14 5. Decision-making

15 When the children are with you, you are responsible for them. You can make day-to-day 16 decisions for the children when they are with you, including decisions about safety and 17 emergency health care. Major decisions must be made as follows.

18 a. Who can make major decisions about the children?

| Type of Major Decision                 | Joint(parents makethese decisionstogether) | Limited(only the parent named below hasauthority to make these decisions) |

| Health care (notemergency)         |                                                        | Sirinya Surina                                                                    |
| Other: Extra CurricularActivities* |                                                        | Sirinya Surina                                                                    |

- 19 Religious upbringing Sirinya Surina
- 20 • Extracurricular Activities that interfere with the other parent's residential time shall 21 be jointly decided.
  - 22 • Those Extracurricular Activities where there is a request for financial contribution 23 must be jointly decided. If either parent declines to contribute financially to a 24 particular activity it shall not preclude the child from participating in the activity so long as it does not interfere with the other parent's residential time.

2 b. Reasons for limits on major decision-making, if any:

3 Major decision-making should be limited because of problems as described in 3.b.
4 above.

5 6. Dispute Resolution - If you and the other parent disagree

6 From time to time, the parents may have disagreements about shared decisions or about 7 what parts of this parenting plan mean.

- 8 a. To solve disagreements about this parenting plan, the parents will go to court (without 9 having to go to mediation, arbitration, or counseling).

10 7. Custodian

11 The custodian is SIRINYA SURINA solely for the purpose of all state and federal statutes
12 which require a designation of determination of custody. Even though one parent is called 13 the custodian, this does not change the parenting rights and responsibilities described in 14 this plan.

15 (Washington law generally refers to parenting time and decision-making, rather than 16 custody. However, some state and federal laws require that one person be named the 17 custodian. The custodian is the person with whom the children are scheduled to spend 18 more of their time.)

19 Parenting Time Schedule (Residential Provisions)

20 Complete the parenting time schedule in sections 8 - 11.

21 8. School Schedule

6 13. Moving with the Children (Relocation)

7 If the custodian plans to move, s/he must notify every person who has court-ordered time with the children.

8 Move to a different school district

9 If the move is to a different school district, the custodian must complete the form Notice of 10 Intent to Move with Children (FL Relocate 701) and deliver it at least 60 days before the intended move.

11 Exceptions:

- 12 • If the custodian could not reasonably have known enough information to complete the form in time to give 60 days' notice, the custodian must give notice within 5 days 13 after learning the information.
- 14 • If the custodian is relocating to a domestic violence shelter or moving to avoid a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to health or safety, notice may be delayed 15 21 days.
- 16 • If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program,
it may be withheld from the notice.
- 17 • A custodian who believes that giving notice would put her/himself or a child at unreasonable risk of harm, may ask the court for permission to leave things out of the notice or to be allowed to move without giving notice. Use form Motion to Limit 18 Notice of Intent to Move with Children (Ex Parte) (FL Relocate 702).

19 The Notice of Intent to Move with Children can be delivered by having someone personally serve the other party or by any form of mail that requires a return receipt.

20 If the custodian wants to change the Parenting Plan because of the move, s/he must 21 deliver a proposed Parenting Plan together with the Notice.

22 Move within the same school district

23 If the move is within the same school district, the custodian still has to let the other parent know. However, the notice does not have to be served personally or by mail with a return receipt. Notice to the other party can be made in any reasonable way. No 24 specific form is required.

Warning! If you do not notify...

A custodian who does not give the required notice may be found in contempt of court. If that happens the court can impose sanctions. Sanctions can include requiring the custodian to bring the children back if the move has already happened, and ordering the custodian to pay the other side's costs and lawyer's fees.

Right to object

A person who has court-ordered time with the children can object to a move to a different school district and/or to the custodian's proposed Parenting Plan. If the move is within the same school district, the other party doesn't have the right to object to the move but s/he may ask to change the Parenting Plan if there are adequate reasons under the modification law (RCW 26.09.260).

An objection is made by filing the Objection about Moving with children and Petition about Changing a Parenting/Custody Order (Relocation) (form FL Relocate 721). File your Objection with the court and serve a copy on the custodian and anyone else who has court-ordered time with the children. Service of the Objection must be by personal service or by mailing a copy to each person by any form of mail that requires a return receipt. The Objection must be filed and served no later than 30 days after the Notice of Intent to Move with Children was received.

Right to move

During the 30 days after the Notice was served, the custodian may not move to a different school district with the children unless s/he has a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if no Objection is filed, the custodian may move with the children without getting a court order allowing the move.

After the 30 days, if an Objection has been filed, the custodian may move with the children pending the final hearing on the Objection unless:

- The other party gets a court order saying the children cannot move, or
- The other party has scheduled a hearing to take place no more than 15 days after the date the Objection was served on the custodian. (However, the custodian may ask the court for an order allowing the move even though a hearing is pending if the custodian believes that s/he or a child is at unreasonable risk of harm.)
- the court may make a different decision about the move at a final hearing on the Objection.

Parenting Plan after move

If the custodian served a proposed Parenting Plan with the Notice, and if no Objection is filed within 30 days after the Notice was served (or if the parties agree):

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- Both parties may follow that proposed plan without being held in contempt of the Parenting Plan that was in place before the move. However, the proposed plan cannot be enforced by contempt unless it has been approved by a court.
  - Either party may ask the court to approve the proposed plan. Use form Ex Parte Motion for Final Order Changing Parenting Plan – No Objection to Moving with Children (FL Relocate 706).
