7. INTRODUCTION AND RELATIONSHIP TO THE PARTIES

I am the Respondent in this action and the biological father of the subject children. I submit this Affidavit in Support of my Petition to Modify the Parenting Plan dated December 20, 2019.

8. VIOLATIONS OF EXISTING COURT ORDERS

The Petitioner, Sirinya Surina, has consistently and willfully violated the existing court orders concerning our children. These violations have had a detrimental impact on the emotional and psychological well-being of our children and impair their right to love and support from both parents. It is well-documented that a healthy relationship with both parents is in the best interest of the child, in accordance with Washington State law RCW 26.

9. RESTRAINING ORDER ISSUES AND RISK OF ABDUCTION

The restraining order in place is unusually restrictive, preventing our children from contacting "the other parent," which in this context means me. This condition is not only against the principles of the mandated "Sharing the Children" seminar required in all Washington divorce cases but also constitutes emotional abuse under RCW 26.09.191. Furthermore, this restraining order gives cover to the potential risk of child abduction, which is a serious violation of both state and federal laws.

10. CONCERNS OF INTERNATIONAL ABDUCTION

Given the mother's ties to Thailand and her threats concerning taking the children away, the risks of international abduction are not speculative but grounded in real concerns.

11. CONFUSING AND CONTRADICTIONARY TERMS IN THE PARENTING PLAN

The parenting plan contains terms that are either handwritten or unclear, particularly concerning international travel. These ambiguities serve no one's best interest and only create opportunities for exploitation and confusion. Washington State law, specifically under RCW 26.16.125 and RCW 26, mandates clarity in these matters for the best interest of the children.

12. NEED FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION

Given the substantial concerns about the well-being of our children, the time-sensitive nature of these issues, and the risks involved, immediate action is required. I am asking the Court to amend the restraining order and the parenting plan as detailed in the attached petition.

13. CONCLUSION

For all the reasons stated, it is in the best interests of our children for the existing parenting plan to be modified and for the restraining order to be reconsidered.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand this ____ day of ____, 20__.
