Title: Lead CSR

Superior Court of Washington, County of Spokane

In re: Fatherhood

Petitioner/s (person/s who started this case):

Sirinya Surina

And Respondent/s (other party/parties):

Aaron Surina

No. 173018170

Declaration of (name):
(DCLR)

Declaration of (name):

Patricia M Chenoweth

1. I am (age): 52 years old and I am the (check one): ☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent

☒ Other (relationship to the people in this case): Lifetime Family Friend

2. I declare: I have known Aaron since he was 2 years old. We spent a lot of time together growing up. Aaron was so excited and happy to become a father. His boys bring him so much joy and you can see how happy the boys are when they are with Aaron.

They get to experience adventures, family oriented activities, they get to learn about all sorts of things because that's what Aaron does, he teaches his boys about life and how to embrace

it. How to be loving, how to treat others with respect, how to show compassion and kindness for others. Aaron teaches them how to be responsible for their actions but also how to be kids and to have fun.

Aaron is a wonderful human being, he always has been. The boys need their father and he needs them. It is very unfair to keep Aaron away from the boys, it is only hurting them.

I have always known that Aaron would be a great father someday. He was born to be a dad.

He always had such a sweet, nurturing nature about him. He's a protector.

I would have had no problem leaving my daughter with him. She would have enjoyed spending time with Aaron and I know he would keep her safe, Aaron is always looking out for everyone else.

Those boys deserve all the happiness this world has to offer and being with their father makes them happy and it makes Aaron happy. They should be together all the time whenever they want.

Thank you,
