In re:

SIRINYA SURINA,

Petitioner,

and

Case No. 17-3-01817-0

AARON SURINA,

Respondent.

Reply Declaration of Aaron Surina

I Declare: I am the Respondent and make this declaration in reply to my motion.

I again ask the Court to adopt my requested relief. Sirinya's response is not accurate, inconsistent with her prior statements, and does not adequately address the issues at hand. It is unfortunate that we could not resolve these issues short of a court hearing given the court's previous orders.

Property Request

I did not remove my clothing and other items out of the house in early July. After I made the police reports and spoke with law enforcement, I removed the guns, some other personal items, and had a "go" bag in case of another assault. Sirinya had me served with the Ex Parte Restraining Order at our home. She even noted in her motion how my mother and I were still residing at the home. I am greatly concerned with the whereabouts of my belongings and her accuse as to why she cannot give them to me.

I did lose weight a year and a half ago. I have never given Sirinya permission to take items to the Goodwill. She did give me a bag of mismatched white socks, and 3 winter shirts. All my winter clothes, jackets, work clothes, shoes, boots, gloves, hats etc are still at the house. Sirinya has previously admitted to this court that she has boxed up our home. I have not removed my items and request that I receive them.

1 I did propose an exchange date of November 4, 2017, in my declaration. Sirinya didn't respond.
2 It is now past that date. I would like to propose this Thursday at 3-6 pm to pick up my belongings. Again,
3 it appears that she is constantly delaying this matter.

4 Part-time School Attendance

5 I disagree, and have been searching for information that we agreed for David to be enrolled full 6 time. That Returning Student Registration application was signed in March, 2017. (Again, I was the only 7 one involved in my child's educational matters the Exhibit provided by Sirinya). We had agreed to enroll
8 him in full time given that he was behind. Please see prior declaration of Ms. Sanburn. This is not about 9 Sirinya. This is about David getting the best education. I agree that both my boys are advanced and very 10 smart. But they are both behind in learning. David is considered ESL student- English as 2nd language.

11 Again, the reason behind Andrew and daycare was her indication that she was looking into 12 classes and work. I recommended what I thought was an outstanding daycare. (I would note that her own 13 declaration of September 25, 2017, indicated that she was going to take English and training classes.

14 September 27, 2017 orders

15 I have not attempted to mislead the Court. Sirinya's attorney's letters, her proposed parenting 16 plan, her messages to me, her lack of cooperation all show that she unilaterally decided to change when 17 and where I could pick up the children. There were no "settlement" negotiations. Sirinya and her counsel 18 wanted to misinterpret the court's ruling and force me to agree. That's not settlement negotiations. Also,
19 the court never ordered a civil restraining order. I was quite surprised to get a proposed one from Sirinya 20 and her attorney.

21 The original order of September 27, 2017, had pick ups on Wednesday at 3 pm. It was originally 22 written as 3:30 pm. Agreement was reached to change it to 3 pm to keep everything consistent. You can 23 tell this because 3:30 is written out. If the hour was written, it says 5pm, not 5:00 pm.

24 I cannot win with children exchanges. I get out of the car- I am in trouble. I stay in the car- I am 25 in trouble. Sirinya is also including pretty blatant hearsay and statements without personal knowledge as 26 she recognizes that she was not there for the exchange. What occurred was very different than what she describes.

1 On November 1, 2017, I arrived at the house and honked the horn to let them know I was there. I
2 arrived on time, but the boys weren't coming out. So I honked. It was 2-3 times so they didn't think it
3 was a random honking outside the house. I didn't lay on the horn or road rage. This is a neighborhood. I 4 know the neighbors. And it would be scary for the boys. Grandma came out and placed Andrew on the 5 ground on the driveway. On every other exchange, I get out of the car. I did so on this exchange. I wait at 6 the curb for grandma to bring me the boys. She did not on this exchange. Grandma set Andrew down and 7 waiting in the driveway. I started to go to the driveway and stopped because Sirinya claims I cannot set 8 foot in her driveway. Andrew started walking down the driveway towards me. Grandma grabbed his arm
9 and pulled him back. Andrew started down the driveway again, and she grabbed and pulled him back 10 again. Sirinya was watching from the house. I didn't want to watch this anymore, so I asked grandma to 11 put him in the car. Andrew did start to cry, but I sincerely believe it was from whatever game they were 12 playing. Andrew often cries when he has to leave me, reaching back for me, but never when he is coming 13 to me.

14 I agree that I had grandma get the boys out. I don't know what to do anymore as everything I do 15 is wrong.

16 Counseling

17 I really don't understand the logic here. I will be telling whatever counselor my perspective of 18 this case and what I think our children have gone through. Sirinya will be doing the same. Mr. Zorrozuza's 19 letter was very un-opinionated about either one of us and focused on David. The sessions are without 20 parents. Sirinya mentions nothing about whether her proposed counselors are covered under our 21 insurance.

22 Holidays

23 I am a little taken back by this. Sirinya has not celebrated the American holidays. I am really 24 trying to propose those celebrations important to her, and those important to me. Is she asking to have 25 both holidays? She's actually fought over the celebration of the holidays. The Christmas after David was 26 born, she stayed in her room the nearly whole time we were with my family.

1 Sirinya references some "divorce agreement" from April and July 2017. I thought she got her Ex
2 Parte restraining order because she didn't know how I was going to react to a divorce? Now she is saying 3 that we were contemplating a divorce for some time?

5 Volunteering and relationship accusations

6 Sirinya doesn't address either of these adequately. So, can I volunteer at the school or not? Also,
7 she doesn't deny that the accusation has been made. Her attorney speaks for her. It is not hearsay.

8 Following Aaron

9 I am not sure what Sirinya is talking about regarding exchanges. The date stamp on the picture is 10 pretty clear. It was September 27, 2017, right after the hearing. It wasn't for the exchange the following 11 day.

12 "Our" Work computer

13 Apparently, now that I am requesting the computer, it has become "our" work computer. Her 14 original declaration of August 14, 2017, page 5, clear states that it was my computer. Is Sirinya now 15 claiming she can work and earn money if she was doing an Amazon business? If so, I would like the 16 court to reconsider its ruling on the finances. Sadly, Sirinya simply keeps changing her testimony to 17 deprive me of property, which will become clear in discussing the Expedition. That computer is my work
18 computer. I work for Providence. It has sensitive and confidential information on it. I respectfully request 19 the Court to order that Sirinya no longer employ hackers to access my computer. I request the names of 20 everyone she has employed to break into that computer. This is pretty serious breach of confidentiality 21 and potentially a crime.

22 Use of Expedition

23 We did not buy the Expedition from my mom. I still maintain that it is my mom's vehicle. My 24 mom is paying the tabs and taxes. (Exhibit A). That can be addressed at another time. I am simply asking 25 for use of it. Again, I do not understand Sirinya's logic. We bought the Expedition for $2,500? She wants 26 to pay down her Hyundai at the most $2,500 (You could more likely get $1,200 for the Expedition), and that is somehow going to magically reduce her payments significantly? No. It is not. I cannot place the

1 Expedition out of reach of the Courts. I would have to account for it if the court found that it was owned 2 by us- which it is not.

3 Sirinya doesn't dispute that I have need of it or that my current vehicle is not drivable. I was 4 using my mother's Expedition because I need a reliable vehicle for the winter. The BMW was not 5 reliable. We've gotten serve weather over this weekend. I have not been able to drive into work. I had to 6 get a coworker to drive me to work for an emergency call because my car is not drivable, and my rental is 7 over. The saddest part is that Sirinya proposed that I used the Expedition in her August 14, 2017,
8 motion. And now, for no reason whatsoever, she is saying that I cannot use it when I need it.

9 Exchanges

10 The children have not always had appropriate clothing per her own statements about sending 11 them in shorts in cold weather. I have not kept their clothing. I have returned items that were left over the 12 only way I know how- by leaving them in the mailbox as I cannot come onto the property. The one photo
13 is when Andrew had a leak through his diaper and there was no change of pants for him. He had a clean 14 diaper, shirt, socks and shoes. His pants were wet, and I couldn't put him back in them. I've actually 15 return the kids in new shows, coats, pants, etc.

16 Based on the forgoing, I ask the court to grant my requests. This has been very frustrating. I have 17 tried over and over again to accommodate, co-parent, try to reach a resolution, do (or not do) everything
18 she has demanded. Yet, I get cut off from my property, my privacy invaded, told I am doing it wrong over 19 and over again. This clarification would greatly help not only Sirinya and I, but also our boys.

2 it wrong over and over again. This clarification would greatly help not only Sirinya and I, but also our 3 boys.

5 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and 6 correct.
